JUMPED THE TRACK.

An Excursion Train Wrecked Near Cleveland, O.

ONE MAN INSTANTLY KILLED.

About Fifteen or Twenty Others Injured, Some Thought Fatally—A List of the Dead and Injured—Engine and Six Cars in a Ditch—Details of the Wreck Hard to Obtain.

CLEVELAND, June 22.—An excursion train of fifteen coaches left this city for Oak Point, a pleasure resort on the New York, Chicago and St. Louis railroad, about twenty miles west of here, early Sunday afternoon. The engine was running with tender in front, and when two miles west of Dover, jumped the track, causing the rails to spread and ditching the train. The engine went down the embankment, pulling one coach with it. The next two cars were telescoped and reduced to kindling wood.

The farmers living near the railroad hastened to the scene and began the work of removing the dead and injured. The air was filled with the screams of the injured and the women in the battered coaches. Only one person was killed outright. At least fifteen and possibly more, were hurt. The accident was in an out-of-the-way place, and particulars are scarce. The following is a list of the killed and injured, all residents of this city:

Killed:
Henry Rogers, 21 years old, skull crushed and internal injuries.

Injured:
Burt Keefe, aged 18, skull fractured, legs hurt; will probably die.

Peter Redon, 21, foot crushed and wound in jaw.

S. M. Clark, 26, ribs broken.

Thomas Grantly, badly bruised and internally injured.

Mary Reddy, 20, ribs broken and internally injured.

Edward Shepperd, 23, right leg crushed and hurt internally.

William Stegkemper, 34, scalp wound and leg crushed.

Lizzie Ray, 26, hip badly bruised.

Charles Quirk, 24, cut in the neck and badly bruised.

Ernest Schrieger, 23, scalp wound.

W. J. Hempstead, 17, right arm broken and leg bruised.

Colonel John W. Gibbons, director of police, bad flesh wounds, internal injuries.

Peter Campbell, foot crushed, jaw fractured; condition serious.

Michael Barrett, 28, leg broken at the knee.

This includes all those more or less injured. The total number of injured is forty-nine, most of whom suffered severe bruises or sprains.

Six cars in all left the track. The fact that the coaches broke loose from the trucks is undoubtedly all that saved the lives of the passengers. The engine was turned completely around and lies dismantled in the ditch. The embankment over which the cars plunged is about six feet high. Many of the passengers jumped through the windows in their efforts to escape and fled in all directions.

Conductor Zeigler was in charge of the train. Neither Engineer Hardner or his fireman were hurt. The train was running at the rate of thirty miles an hour. The excursionists were returned by another route. Many of them refused to board the cars again and were driven back to this city by farmers.

Edward Rogers, who was killed instantly, was at one time a professional ball player of the Toronto, Ont., team. Ten or twelve were fatally injured, but their names could not be learned owing to the reticence of the hospital employees. Every ambulance in the city was called, and met the special train that went out for the injured. Forty were badly hurt.

THE STANDARD IN GERMANY.

No Truth in the Cables Saying the Company Had Secured an Oil Monopoly.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Much interest has been excited in financial circles in this city by recent dispatches from Berlin, tending to show that the Standard Oil company, by agreement with the Rothschilds who control the Russian petroleum field, had secured an absolute monopoly in Germany.

A reporter who called at the office of President Rockefeller, of the Standard Oil company, was referred to President McGee, of the Devoe Manufacturing company, in the Standard building. Mr. McGee said his attention had been called to the cable statements from Berlin, that they were incorrect, and had no foundation in fact, so far as they related to the Standard Oil company.

SOLDIERS REVOLT.

Serious Disaffection Among Balmaceda's Forces at Coquimbo.

NEW YORK, June 22.—The Herald's Iquique special says that the insurgent warship Esmeralda, has shelled and completely destroyed the government works at the Lobos or seal guano islands. Shipments of guano are now impossible, cutting off government revenue.

The startling news has reached Iquique that there is a serious disaffection among Balmaceda's forces at Coquimbo, an entire battalion having revolted. Several officers, who refused to join them, were killed. These troops are marching northward to join the congressional forces at Caldera. The insurgents are wild with enthusiasm and certain of victory.

HOBOKEN, N. J., June 22.—Seven firemen of the steamship Werra have been arrested here for a mutiny which occurred at sea.

LABOR DEMONSTRATION.

A Great Event Will Take Place in Steubenville, O., July 6.

STUEBENVILLE, O., June 22.—President Martin Fox, of the Iron Molders' of North America, will be one of the speakers at the grand labor demonstration in this city July 6. Among the organizations which will participate are the American Flint glassworkers, the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel workers, the Knights of Labor, the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, Iron Molders' union, United Mine Workers' association, Glass Employees' association, the International Typographical union and others.

A great parade, with 20,000 men in line, will be one of the features of the day. Governor Campbell, of Ohio; Governor Pattison, of Pennsylvania, and Governor Fleming, of West Virginia, have all promised to be present. Among the prominent labor speakers will be Samuel Gompers, of the Federation of Labor; John McBride, P. J. McGuire, John B. Rae, J. J. Martin and others.

A beautiful floral tribute will be placed upon the grave of Thomas Armstrong, the brave labor editor who joined the silent majority about two years ago, with an oration by Miles Humphrey, the orator at the unveiling of a statue to him in Allegheny City park last year.

IN THE HAT STORE.

Corroborative Evidence in the Elliott Murder Trial.

COLUMBUS, O., June 22.—Testimony in the Elliott murder trial Saturday had to do mainly with what occurred in the hat store when Osborn received the fatal shot. McDonald, proprietor of the store, testified to shot marks indicating that P. J. Elliott fired at Osborn as he entered the door.

This corroborates many witnesses, who said that P. J. Elliott pursued Osborn into the store, and breaks down the defense's theory that P. J. Elliott thought he was fatally wounded and was seeking a refuge.

James Peoples, the ball player, who was in the store at the time, and Clerk Sylvester corroborated this, but they fled, and while they heard the shot, they did not see it fired.

All agreed that Osborn came in the store dazed and staggered around from weakness with Elliott's shot in his neck, and it seems well proved that he fell to the floor, where P. J. Elliott dispatched him with a shot through the heart.

Officer Wolf testifies that when he entered the hat store a shot had just been fired and P. J. Elliott was stooping over the prostrate body of Osborn with a revolver in his hand. The state will consume another week.

PENSION FRAUDS.

A Woman Draws Her Pension for Sixteen Years After Remarrying.

COLUMBUS, O., June 22.—United States Marshal Hysell has arrested Jacob Longenbaugh for one of the most gigantic pension frauds in the history of Ohio. Longenbaugh is a prominent and wealthy citizen of Ashville, Pickaway county. Sixteen years ago he married Mrs. Isabella Arebaugh, who was at that time on the pension rolls as widow of a dead soldier and since the marriage under the pension laws the widow must furnish the department a certificate each three months, stating that she has not been remarried.

For sixteen years Logenbaugh has been making out this certificate for his wife, and she has regularly drawn her pension. Logenbaugh was himself a justice of the peace, and in his official capacity he could certify to papers made out in his wife's former name. The prominence of the parties and the extent of the fraud makes the affair highly sensational.

SMOOTHING IRON EXPLODES.

The Proprietor of a Dye Works Badly Burned.

MUNCIE, Ind., June 22.—At McCordle & Company's steam dye works, yesterday, a very singular explosion occurred, badly burning James McCordle, one of the proprietors. A large automatic self-heating smoothing iron, heated by gasoline, is used in the establishment.

Owing to some neglect in properly arranging the gasoline, the iron exploded with a loud report, throwing the heavy iron through the ceiling. Mr. McCordle was terribly burned about the face and arms from the burning gasoline.

Double Murder.

WINSTON, N. C., June 22.—A double murder was committed in this city at 1 o'clock Sunday morning. John Smith and Wilburn Walker got into a difficulty with some unknown parties near a disreputable house, and sought shelter in the house of Henry Goins, a colored man. They were pursued and fired upon, the first shot killing Mary Goins. Walker returned the fire, and Smith, who was between Walker and his pursuer, was shot four times. Smith and the woman died instantly. The unknown parties have escaped.

A Stroke of Paralysis.

RICHMOND, June 22.—Saturday morning Joseph D. Sherer, marble cutter, was stricken with paralysis while in a meat market, and, though speechless as well as helpless, gave vent in tears to the mental anguish he experienced, making a most pitiable sight. He had a stroke last January and was told the next would probably prove fatal and when it now came was apprehensive that he would not get home alive. However, the probability is that he will pull through again.

Arrested for Forgery.

PETOSKEY, Mich., June 22.—Edward Rowell was arrested Saturday on a request from officers of Jacksonville, Fla. Rowell is charged with passing forged certified checks of $1,800 on Jacksonville and St. Augustine banks.

M'DONALD IS DEAD.

Another Ex-Senator Called to His Long Home.

HIS DEATH A PEACEFUL ONE.

He Partly Arranges His Own Funeral Which Will Take Place in Indianapolis on Wednesday Afternoon—Last Hours of His Eventful Life.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 22.—Ex-Senator McDonald died last night at 11:45, apparently without pain and after having lain in a semi-conscious condition for three hours preceding his demise. Early yesterday morning he became convinced that the end was near, and calling Mrs. McDonald to his bedside he gave a few simple directions regarding his funeral.

Dr. Runnels came in at that moment and the patient told him that he did not feel as well as on the previous day and that he had made up his mind that it was not worth while to make further effort to save him. He said that he was conscious of the fact that everything possible had been done for him, but it was equally clear that all remedies had failed and that he was gradually sinking under his disease.

The physician then gave him a candid statement of his condition, saying that it was impossible to relieve him, and that he had determined not to give him any more medicine or food, as his stomach was throwing off puss and blood, the first evidence of the kind that had been noticed and a symptom that indicated that the end was near.

He then asked that the pastor and the elders be sent for, that he might partake of the sacrament before he died. Rev. Haines, of the First Presbyterian church, and the elders of the Second church were summoned and the sacrament was administered. Mr. McDonald receiving it while sitting up in bed. Immediately after taking the sacrament he fell into a semi-comatose state, from which he was aroused but once or twice during the evening.

At 3 o'clock Dr. Runnels called and found him apparently sleeping, but when aroused he failed to recognize him. The family was notified that death might occur at any moment, and Mrs. McDonald, Malcomb, his son; J. B. Caldwell, his son-in-law, and W. D. Keer, a half brother, gathered around the bed. Several attempts were made to rouse him, but his attention could be held only for a moment and nothing could be elicited from him but yes or no in answer to questions.

At 8 o'clock his breathing became irregular, the respirations becoming further and further apart until life was extinct, his death being so peaceful that it was some moments before his assembled relatives could realize that the end had indeed come. Though prepared for the event by the knowledge for several days that his illness must terminate fatally, Mrs. McDonald is greatly prostrated over her loss.

The funeral has been fixed for 8 o'clock Wednesday, but beyond this no arrangements have been perfected. Telegrams are being sent to all parts of the Union notifying friends of his death and the date of the funeral.

MAMMOTH PETITION.

Philadelphians Will Ask the Czar to Deal Kindly With Political Prisoners.

PHILADELPHIA, June 22.—A petition containing 300,000 names will within a few weeks be sent from this city to St. Petersburg, praying the czar to deal kindly with his political prisoners. The successful termination of this gigantic undertaking is due to the efforts of the Siberian Exile Petition association, which embraces among its membership men noted in politics, art, literature and science.

The petitions will fill several enormous chests and will be shipped to the czar after the first of July. A well known diplomat and journalist will accompany the petition, of which he will write a history, including its reception by the czar.

Destructive Bush Fires.

KINGSTON, Ont., June 22.—The bush fires which have been raging in this section for some weeks past, are blazing as fiercely as ever and are doing tremendous damage. The depot of McLachlin Brothers, Aylan lake, took fire from the fires raging in that section and was completely destroyed, together with its contents of grain, hay and provisions. Loss $75,000. The residence of George Laycock has also been burned and it is reported that Booth's depot at Egan on the Madawaska river has been destroyed with all of its contents.

Arrested on a Serious Charge.

ROANOKE, Va., June 22.—S. M. Levine, a young Hebrew, was arrested here yesterday charged with poisoning his wife in Philadelphia about Jan. 1. Levine came to Roanoke a few months ago and has been employed as a salesman in a shoe store. He and his wife did not live happily together and separated, the latter taking up her residence in Philadelphia. Levine was seen with her about Jan. 1 and next morning she was found dead in her room.

Not Guilty.

MUNCIE, Ind., June 22.—After a hotly contested trial, lasting three days, Judge Bundy, of Henry county, charged the jurors in the case in which Attorney Clayton B. Templer was charged with altering public records. After being out all night and Saturday, the jury late in the afternoon returned a verdict of not guilty.

FOR HIS LIFE.

An Important Trial Begun at Tiffin.

Mervin Kuhn Being Tried for Murder.

TIFFIN, O., June 22.—Today in the court of common pleas of Seneca county was begun the trial of a man accused of murder, whose desperate career since boyhood and the dramatic circumstances connected with his apprehension for the crime with which he now stands charged, attracted the attention of the entire country six months ago.

On the morning of Nov. 17, 1890, the body of a man dressed in ordinary garb was found in a back alley in a remote section of the city of Fostoria. A bullet wound was found in his right temple. For more than a week the coroner vainly endeavored to fix upon his identity.

Photographs of the body were taken, and copies of these appeared in papers throughout the country. Finally, Nov. 25 there appeared before the coroner, at Fostoria, a young, slender, but wiry and rather handsome fellow, an entire stranger, who positively identified the corpse as that of William Campeau, a friend of his, whose home was in Monroe, Mich., and from whom he had parted at Marion, O., on the morning of the day of his murder. The identification was complete, but upon close questioning, the witness began to manifest a nervousness that created suspicion.

Finally he asked permission to retire to the rear yard, whence he was accompanied by an officer. No sooner had the witness passed out the door than he vaulted over the back fence and was gone. It developed during his uncompleted examination that he had a wife temporarily sojourning at Prospect, Marion county, and she was sent for and placed upon the stand.

The girl, who is now known to fame as Della Bird, proved an unwilling but good witness, and from her it was learned that the man who had so neatly slipped through the fingers of the officers was the noted Indiana and Ohio horse thief and all-around desperado, Marvin Kuhns, and almost beyond a doubt the murderer of William Campeau.

The girl was not his wife, but his mistress. She has since been held in the Tiffin jail as a witness.

When Kuhns left Fostoria he went to Fort Wayne, Ind. Here he was recognized and a posse of officers started in pursuit. A portion of the posse, composed of Deputy Sheriff Wilkinson, of Allen county, and Officer Kennedy, of the Fort Wayne police force, overtook him near the village of Cherubusco.

Kuhns had as his companion one Weese, who has since been sent to the penitentiary for his participation in the ensuing affray.

Immediately upon the summons to surrender, Kuhns and his companion opened fire, and a desperate duel ensued. Kuhns was shot no less than seven times, at least three of the wounds being deemed necessarily fatal.

Kuhns's companion was shot in the knee and Officer Kennedy was desperately and for a long time thought to be fatally wounded. Notwithstanding Kuhns's terrible wounds he again escaped, but was captured a few hours afterward at a farm house in the neighborhood and taken to the Fort Wayne jail, where he remained for several weeks, thought to be hovering between life and death. To the surprise of every one but himself he recovered, and in January was brought to the jail in this city, where he has since remained awaiting trial for the murder of Campeau, whom the evidence shows to have been a companion thief.

SUSPICIOUS SURROUNDINGS.

The Coroner Will Investigate the Cause of a Mysterious Death.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 22.—The finding of copper in the stomach of Mrs. Nancy Wright, and the numerous rumors afloat regarding the death of other members of her family, have determined Coroner Manker to enter into a thorough investigation, and the first steps will be taken today when the body of Mrs. Taylor will be exhumed and the contents of her stomach analyzed.

It is no longer a secret that Mrs. John Dorsey, a daughter of Mrs. Taylor, and a sister of Mrs. Wright, is suspected of the unnatural crime of murdering both of the women, and though the police will make no arrests till the result in Mrs. Taylor's case is known, Mrs. Dorsey is under surveillance and will not be allowed to leave the city. She is now living with her fifth husband, and it is claimed that each of the four whom she survives died from symptoms similar to those in the case of Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Taylor.

The lives of her husbands and of her mother and sister were insured, and if the coroner's suspicions should prove to be well founded, the insurance money was the incentive to the crime. Mrs. Wright left one child, and Mrs. Dorsey asked to be appointed guardian, but the coroner interfered and the appointment was not made. He told Mrs. Dorsey plainly that she was suspected of killing her sister, but the only reply that she made was that her conscience was clear.

Crushed in a Sand Bank.

ERIE, Pa., June 22.—Saturday afternoon Richard Andrews, aged 9 years, was crushed to death, and Eugene Coleman, aged 7 years, probably fatally injured by the cave-in of a sand bank in which they were playing on West Eleventh street. A miraculous escape from another fatality of the same nature occurred on State street during the morning. A sand bank caved in on a number of workmen who were engaged in excavating a site for a large block. All escaped except Joseph Schwartz, a stonemason, who was rescued in four feet of sand. He was almost crushed to death, but when taken out no bones were found broken, and he will live.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 22.—The supreme court Saturday handed down an opinion in the natural gas litigation, holding that the law passed by the legislature, prohibiting the piping of natural gas outside the state, is valid.

EX-TREASURER WOODRUFF, of Arkansas, defaulted for $160,000, but his bondsmen have, to date, put up $100,000 to cover his stealings. Isn't it about time for Dick Tate's bondsmen to plank down some cash to cover his defalcation?

HON. JOHN YOUNG BROWN, the Democratic nominee for Governor, spoke at Georgetown Saturday, to a big crowd. He met with a grand reception, as he does everywhere he appears, and his speech was the subject of highly complimentary mention by all who heard it.

EX-SENATOR JOSEPH E. McDONALD'S death was not unexpected. Reports from his home last week indicated that the end was near. Indiana loses one of her most prominent sons, and the Democratic party one of its old-time leaders in his death. He passed away last night.

THE Philadelphia Record says: "All the oatmeal mills in the country are now under one management, with headquarters in Senator Sherman's State. Simultaneously the oat-louse has appeared in the adjacent State of Illinois. Between the two it will fare hard with him that taketh his porridge. He may as well shut his teeth and gird himself to be ground exceedingly fine."

THE Courier-Journal devoted a column and a half Saturday in ridiculing and belittling the private meeting of the friends of the new Constitution at Lexington the day before, and then closed its article with the following sentence: If the best counsels prevail, it will be a campaign of education, and not of abuse.

The C.-J. ought to talk of "a campaign of education and not of abuse."

Statement From Senator Blackburn.

Senator Blackburn was Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions in the late Democratic State convention, and General Basil Duke was a member of that committee. Friday he was at Lexington and presided over the meeting of the friends of the new Constitution. The following statement coming from him is published in the Lexington Leader:

"During the time of the meeting General Duke would leave his seat frequently to confer with others at the door of the committee room."

"I was asked several times if I didn't think it would be well to leave the new Constitution out of the platform and not make it a party issue. I said that on these grounds I had no objections to leaving it out if it would not be construed as a repudiation of the new Constitution, and with that understanding I voted that it should not be in the platform as a party issue."

"As soon as the resolutions were known a good many papers came out with the statement that the Democratic party had repudiated the new Constitution in its convention, and capital was made out of it by the anti's."

"I notice those who were strongest in urging that the Constitution should be left out of the party platform during the convention are still the strongest in opposing its adoption."

Senator Blackburn on the New Constitution.

Senator Blackburn has been interviewed by a Louisville Post correspondent on the new Constitution and here is his reply: "I came home from Washington sharing some of the prejudice against the work which existed at the time, and which I caught by reflection. When the instrument was finally submitted I got a copy and read it carefully in the shade of my own vine and fig tree. I know of only one crucial test to be applied to it, and that is to run it up like a ledger with a debit and credit side, putting all of the good things in one column and all of the objectionable features in another, and then balance accounts. If there is more on the debit side reject it; if on the credit side accept it. That is the test I applied and I found a good balance to the credit of the instrument, and I think the people will do well to adopt it. There are provisions in it that I would strike out if I had the power, but take it up one side and down the other and it is superior to the one we are living under. There is a large number of good things in it, but the one which perhaps more than any other commends itself to me is the open clause by means of which the objectionable matter may be eliminated and other features injected into it. So that we may never need to call another convention."

TO FIGHT FOR IT.

Friends of the New Constitution Organize to Resist Its Opponents.

A few friends and advocates of the new Constitution held a private meeting at Lexington Friday and perfected an organization by the election of the following Executive Committee:

Chairman—Senator J. C. S. Blackburn.
State at Large—S. E. DeHaven, of Oldham; E. J. McDermott, of Louisville; H. L. Stone, of Louisville; D. G. Colson, of Bell; J. D. Clardy, of Christian; Bennett H. Young, of Louisville; Curtis F. Burnam, of Madison.

First District—C. T. Allen, of Caldwell.
Second District—S. B. Vance, of Henderson.
Third District—Warner Settle, of Warren.
Fourth District—F. P. Strauss, of Bullitt.
Fifth District—Zack Phelps, of Louisville.
Sixth District—Wm. Goebel, of Covington.
Seventh District—C. J. Bronston, of Lexington.
Eighth District—W. B. Smith, of Madison.
Ninth District—D. J. Burchett, of Lawrence.
Tenth District—W. M. Beckner, of Clark.
Eleventh District—J. H. Denton, of Pulaski.

The headquarters of the committee will be established at Louisville, and it will proceed at once to get out campaign literature and send out speakers. It is contemplated as a probable part of the campaign to hold a ratification meeting for the new Constitution in Louisville, says the Courier-Journal.

Senator Blackburn presided over the meeting at Lexington. It is said he enters heartily into the work, and made a little speech pledging his best efforts in the work.

For the Farmer.

A suckling mule raised by Mr. S. A. Piper, of Mayslick, was sold last week to Mr. Eugene Davis, of Helena, for $125. It was sired by Piper & Laytham's imported jack.

The Bowling Green Times says: "One of the oldest and most prosperous, as well as the most intelligent, farmers of Warren County, says that our wheat crop this year is the best one we have had in fifteen years."

The Census Bureau's tobacco statistics for Ohio are as follows: The total number of planters in the State during the census year was 12,929; the total area devoted to tobacco, 44,403 acres; total product, 37,853,563 pounds, and the value of crop to the producer, estimated on basis of actual sales, $2,642,858.

The crop statistics for 1890 as gleaned from the Assessors' returns to the State Auditor show that Mason County produced 5,496,895 pounds of tobacco, 8,327 tons of hay, 663,175 bushels of corn, and 165,112 bushels of wheat; Fleming County, 3,089,997 pounds of tobacco, 5,733 tons of hay, 520,814 bushels of corn, and 111,809 bushels of wheat; Bracken County, 4,607,300 pounds of tobacco, 2,093 tons of hay, 237,705 bushels of corn, and 51,268 bushels of wheat; Lewis County, 1,052,550 pounds of tobacco, 3,253 tons of hay, 223,445 bushels of corn, and 24,440 bushels of wheat.

The Railroads.

There is talk of the Cincinnati and Georgetown being extended to Russellville, a distance of six miles.

The earnings of the C. and O. for the second week of June show an increase of $10,893.62, as compared with the corresponding week of last year. The figures are:

1891.....$150,748 94
1890.....139,855 32
Increase.....$10,893 62

Says the Enquirer: "A tariff of water and rail rates issued by the Richmond Terminal, and which went into effect Friday, reduces the basis 48 cents first-class from New York to the Mississippi river on business destined to Missouri river points. The Kanawha Dispatch, operating over the C. and O. road, retailed by issuing a tariff on the basis of 45 cents via Newport News, taking effect June 30. This brings the rates down to a little more than half the former figures, and it is not probable that the bottom has been reached as yet. Other roads can hardly escape being drawn into the fight."

River News.

Another rise at headwaters, and about 6,000,000 bushels of coal left Pittsburg yesterday.

The Andes passed down this morning with a fine trip. One of her attractions now is a band composed entirely of women.

Due up: Bostona for Pomeroy and Andes for Pittsburg to night at 12 o'clock. Down: Chancellor, Batchelor, and Stanley this evening and Congo to-night.

The construction of the new Telegraph is well under way, and before long the familiar tones of her defunct namesake's whistle will again awaken the echoes of the valleys along the river between Cincinnati and Pomeroy.

Whooping Cough.

"We have had an epidemic of whooping cough here, says A. B. Pope, Stewart, Tenn., and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been the only medicine that has done any good." There is no danger from whooping cough, when the remedy is freely given. It completely controls the disease. Fifty cent bottles for sale by Power & Reynolds.

Oh! For the Fourth.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians will have a grand excursion to Ironton, Ohio, July the Fourth, the occasion being the laying of the corner stone of a new Catholic Church at that place. Further particulars given later.

Attention, Sir Knights.

Regular stated conclave of Maysville Commandery No. 10 this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Also conference of K. T. order. A full attendance requested.

Sunday Closing.

The move for a better observance of Sunday is gaining strength.

Most all the dealers in cigars and tobacco closed their places of business yesterday and there was but one clothing store open and that only for a short time. The barber shops have been closed several Sundays now in succession.

Syrup of Figs.

Produced from the laxative and nutritious juice of California figs, combined with the medicinal virtues of plants known to be the most beneficial to the human system, acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds and headaches, and curing habitual constipation.

Standing Committee—Frank P. O'Donnell, P. Sammons, John Day, J. S. Redmond, John O'Mahoney.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MAYSICK.

The heaviest rain we have had this season fell Friday evening. Pike street was entirely flooded. Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson returned home last Thursday from her visit of several days to Maysville.

Miss Sadie Wheatley, of Pleasant Valley, this county, was a guest of Mrs. J. A. Jackson last week.

W. W. Burley is now with us manufacturing the head raise spring bed bottom. To see it is to buy it.

The heavy washing rains last week made the ground too wet to work, but the weeds grow all the same.

Dr. Hal Dimmitt, who has been in our midst for some time, is talking of locating at some point in Lewis County.

During the rain storm a week ago Sunday fences that have stood firm against the floods for fifteen years were swept away.

We learn that there is some talk of Professor Chandler applying for the seal at this place. It would be a happy hit should he get it. He is a fine teacher.

Mrs. A. Raymond, during a heavy rain storm a few days ago, had two of her horses killed by lightning. The writer, with his little son and mother-in-law, was in the storm, but got through safe.

A monument, to the memory of the late John T. Wilson, arrived here last week, and was hauled from the depot by Alexander Duke, by eight horses. One of the stones weighed twenty-two thousand pounds. It will be put up this week.

Mrs. Anna Wilson and Miss Mamie Scott came up from Maysville Friday evening to view the monument she is having erected to the memory of her husband. We learn she was well pleased with it and gave her check for three thousand dollars. "J. B. H." of Desha Valley, will be on hand at the monument-raising and in a short time we will get at the particulars.

Fancies of Fashion.

Black and gold is a favorite combination for small bonnets.

It is quite the style to have the jacket, hat and veil all of a color.

Napoleon blue, a grayish tint of blue, is one of the colors of the season.

Yellow is the color note of millinery, and yellow with russet red one of the new combinations.

Some of the most effective gowns are in neutral shades, that, seen in the piece, do not commend themselves to most people.

Rubens collars are very much worn on matinees and negligees. They are generally made with a narrow hem, edged with lace or fine embroidery.

Most of the new French skirts are gracefully shaped and made without foundations. They are simply silk-lined and have a pleating of silk inside the hem.

"Brutus brown" is a sort of tan shade well worn, and heliotrope, in combination with green or tan, is attempted by every stylish woman with a clear complexion.

It is of interest to watch the evolution of the sleeve. The shape to which it has now come is a quaint and curious pagoda form, gathered at the top and falling in a bell below the elbow.

The new dresses seem to be made for the most part very plain and close on the hips, with sloped or gored breadths widening toward the lower part. Sometimes this close fitting on the hips is facilitated by small puffs inside.

RETSEOF MINING SALT CRMPANY'S

ROCK LUMP SALT FOR CATTLE

To FARMERS, STOCK-RAISERS and OTHERS:

It is not generally known that the use of common loose salt for cattle, horses, sheep and hogs, is injurious to them, but such, however, is the fact. Their nature requires only so much salt as will be absorbed by the saliva. By the ordinary method of salting, more or less of the loose salt is carried undissolved into the stomach, causing irritation to the membranes and coating.

In many well authenticated instances the death of sheep, and attacks of colic and other difficulties in horses and cows have been traced to this cause. It is very desirable, therefore, that some method of salting stock be employed. The most suitable form of salt for this purpose is furnished by nature in the Rock or Mineral Salt, and the best possible method of supplying it to stock is to place lumps of it in the mangers and other places where it can be easily reached when required by them. It goes four times as far as common salt, and is cheaper at any reasonable price. Any stock will do 20 per cent. better by using our Rock Salt. They do not have that terrible thirsting for water caused by using common salt, which contains large quantities of lime and magnesia, our salt being the only salt known free from these impurities.

AN OLD DODGE.

Two Kentuckians Pay $900 for a Box of Sawdust.

The "green goods" racket is an old bait, but it is very effective still in roping in "suckers."

The Louisville Times says two well-known and influential citizens of Kentucky, who reside within fifty miles of that city, were recently caught by this swindle for the snug sum of $900. They deserve no sympathy. The Times says: "Both men are in comfortable circumstances and are engaged in a business which would readily enable them to dispose of counterfeit money. All the facts were communicated to Government Detective M. G. Bauer, who out of sympathy for the unfortunates, agreed not to give their names to the public."

"The story does not differ in the least from similar ones published from time to time. The two Kentuckians received circulars accompanied by sample two-dollar bills. The samples were represented as counterfeit, though they were undoubtedly genuine Treasury notes. The circulars related that by coming to New York, $6,000 worth of such bills could be obtained for $900."

"The two victims packed their grips and hastened to New York. Here the green goods swindlers were soon found, and more green bills shown as samples of the counterfeit in which they dealt. To show how perfect the counterfeit was a bank was visited by the swindlers and victims and several of the bills exchanged for gold and silver. This satisfied the victims and they were eager to reach some retired place where the purchase could be made. When a suitable room was found, the $6,000 worth of money to be sold was carefully counted out, placed in a box and closely sealed. While the $900 was being paid over another box must have been substituted for the one containing the supposed bogus bills."

"The greedy Kentuckians, after getting possession of the coveted box, left the city as quickly as possible. At Philadelphia they determined to examine their treasure, when behold, as the box was opened it was found to contain nothing but sawdust. The two victims returned to New York but, of course, could find no trace of the swindlers. Upon returning to Louisville one of the men came to Captain Bauer and asked what reward would be paid for capturing counterfeiters. Though the man was well dressed and bore every evidence of being a gentleman, Captain Bauer felt satisfied he had attempted to purchase counterfeit money. Captain Bauer flatly accused him and the visitor at first denied, but finally told the whole story. He begged so piteously for mercy that Captain Bauer finally consented not to give his name to the newspapers."

"The country is now being more completely flooded with green goods circulars than ever before. In this instance the swindlers secured $900, and were put to the expense of sending out four good dollars, four cents in stamps, and were obliged to pay a few dollars for preparing the circulars. There are doubtless many victims who never tell their tales of woe. "It is astonishing the number of prominent citizens to whom these circulars are forwarded. The swindlers do not send out their circulars at random. Seldom is a circular received by any man who is not rated highly in the reports of the commercial agents."

THE Ancient Order of Hibernians initiated three new members yesterday and had one application for membership.

THE storm that swept over this section Saturday morning is reported to have been very destructive in Lewis County. A special from Vanceburg says great damage was done, particularly to the wheat crop.

MARION B. RATLIFF was arrested near Vanceburg for a burglary committed at Rockwood, O. It is said a peculiar circumstance connected with the case is that the man whose store was robbed, though he was blind, played the detective and helped trace Ratliff to his hiding place.

AT Newport, a few evenings ago, Miss Jennie Nichols, of this city, formerly Mrs. Jennie Pearce, was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph Greer, a prominent turfman of Cincinnati. Mrs. Greer is now in Lexington bidding her friends farewell. She will spend the summer with her husband at various Eastern points.—Lexington Leader.

COLONEL KENNEDY, commander of the famous organization known as the "Louisiana Tigers" during the war, was a nephew of the late Mr. John Brough, of this county, and a cousin of Dr. Samuel Brough, of Helena. He was living in New Orleans when the war came on and, joining this regiment as a private, was soon elected its Colonel. He was a brother of Warren Kennedy, who kept a book and news stand on Vine street in Cincinnati, and who jumped out of the third story window one day at noon when the street was crowded, without hurting any one but himself.

Here and There.

Mr. Geo. Cox and family are at Atlantic City.

Robert Taylor Marshall, of Fleming County, has been making a short visit to relatives at Washington.

Miss Annie Valentine, of Georgetown, Ohio, is visiting her sister, Mrs. David Hunter, near Washington.

Mrs. May S. Pepper and her little granddaughter, Edna Quante, of 147 Richmond street, are spending the summer with relatives in Mason County.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Mrs. C. G. Layne, of Hopkinsville, after a visit of several weeks to the family of Mr. A. J. McDougle, is spending a few days with relatives at Dover and Augusta, and from there will return home.

Miss Mary W. Marshall, of Washington, has gone to Fleming County to visit her brother, Charles, who has just gotten into his new house, built since the destruction of his fine old homestead by fire.

Edward Waller, a former Mason County, but for many years a resident of Chicago, was visiting the family of Col. Charles A. Marshall, near Washington, last week, and was accompanied by his wife.

THE annual commencement at the Visitation Academy will take place June 25, at 9:30 a. m. The invitations extended will not be transferable, hence only those to whom they have been sent will be admitted to the exercises.

ONLY a few more days to close out our entire stock of china, glass and queensware, which must be sold without fail. We mean business. Dinner, tea and chamber sets at sacrifice prices. Yours respectfully, 18d9t&wit OBERSTEIN & COHEN.

WAR CLOUD IN ASIA.

Trouble Between the French and Siamese Troops

ON THE BANKS OF MEKONG.

The Siamese Engaged in Ravaging the Territory Claimed by the French to Be Within Their Jurisdiction—Other Dispatches as Telegraphed from the Old World.

LONDON, June 22.—A dispatch from Calcutta states that war is threatened in Asia between the French and Siamese. The Annamites, who are tributary to France, have already come to blows with Siamese troops on the banks of the Mekong, and the Siamese are engaged in ravaging the territory claimed by the French to be within their jurisdiction.

Nothing has been heard of Pavie, the French officer, who, with a party of assistants, was engaged in adjusting the boundary line, and strong apprehension is felt that he may have fallen a victim to Siamese hostility. Should such be the case direct hostilities between France and Siam are more than probable, especially as the Siamese feel but little disposed to make any concession. German and English influences are powerful in Siam, and the Germans hold valuable contracts that would be disastrously affected by war. The King of Siam, however, is believed to be desirous of peace, and has ordered his troops on the frontier to abstain from the present from any aggressive course.

France Ignored by the Porte.

From Constantinople comes the news that the Porte refuses to be intimidated by the threats of the French embassy into hasty action in the matter of the recent riots at Jerusalem between the Greeks and Roman Catholics in which the Turkish soldiery rather took the side of the Greeks. The French ambassador sent a peremptory demand for redress in behalf of the Catholics, whose protector France claims to be. The Porte, however, ignores the French interference, and is going about the investigation in a deliberate way.

Guelph Party Set Down On.

BERLIN, June 22.—The Kaiser put his foot down sternly against the Guelph party in Hanover, which has of late been assuming considerable boldness on account of the relationship of the Kaiser to the house of Guelph through his mother and his presumed sympathy on that account. The Kaiser, while avowedly proud of the Guelph connection, and considering himself a member of that family, has given it to be understood that he will not tolerate any disavowment of Prussian supremacy in Hanover, and that any agitation among officials favorable to the Guelph movement must be sternly repressed.

Preparing for the Kaiser.

AMSTERDAM, June 22.—Great preparations are being made here for the reception of Kaiser William, who will visit this city on his way to England. The Hollanders propose to show their friendship for Germany in a way that the Kaiser will remember, and the old Dutch capital will witness the most brilliant spectacle it has seen in the century. Before starting for Amsterdam the Kaiser will be present at the launching of a new large ironclad at Wilhelmshaven, the latest addition to the imperial navy.

An Improved Koch Lymph Promised.

BERLIN, June 22.—In the upper house Saturday Count Zedlitz maintained the scientific value of lymph as a therapeutic. He said also that the value would be greatly enhanced soon, when Koch had obtained the pure cultivation of the principal substance, which, Koch said, would be achieved in a few weeks. The composition would then be submitted to the scientific world.

King William's Monument.

BERLIN, June 22.—The new models of the great national monument to the late Kaiser William, which is to be erected in Berlin near the old Royal palace, or Schloss, will be exhibited in the Royal arsenal, Unter den Linden, in July. The sum collected for a church to be erected in memory of the late Kaiser now amounts to about 725 marks.

Passengers All Escaped.

LONDON, June 22.—A train carrying militiamen on a single track railroad about two miles from Londonderry, collided with an empty train. The engineer was instantly killed and his fireman fatally injured, but the passengers escaped unhurt.

Sailors Scarce.

LONDON, June 22.—Sailors are so scarce that it is doubtful whether the intended naval maneuvers will be held, unless a sufficient complement is obtained by the detention of warships destined for India.

TRAIN HELD UP.

A Constable Attaches an Engine and Holds it Three Hours.

PUEBLO, Colo., June 22.—A constable of the town of Eades, in Kiowa county, held up the Missouri Pacific express for three hours Saturday night. The salary of an employee of the road had been garnished by a citizen of Eades, but the company had neglected to settle, and the matter was placed in the hands of the constable.

When the express stopped at Eades Saturday night the constable boarded the cab of the engine and served papers attaching the same. Nearly three hours were spent in telegraphing the superintendent of the road, who finally ordered the payment of the money demanded by the constable. A postal inspector was on the delayed train and it is likely that suit will be brought against the constable for intercepting the mails.

The committee appointed by the last general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church has decided to hold the next conference in Omaha during the month of May, 1902.

Jack Kehoe, a saloonkeeper of Manistee, Mich., murdered his mother-in-law, Mrs. Ann McCormick, by poisoning her with a bad-trotter. He attempted to kill his wife but failed. Kehoe gave himself up.

SENSATIONAL SHOOTING AFFAIR.

One Man Killed and a Woman Seriously Injured.

PITTSBURG, June 22.—A sensational shooting affair occurred at McKeesport at 10:30 Saturday night, resulting in the death of William Myers and the serious injury of Mrs. William Harding. Both parties are married. Myers had been making love to Mrs. Harding for several months. Saturday the Myers and Harding families attended a picnic. Myers began his renewal of love for Mrs. Harding at the picnic, to which Mrs. Harding paid but little attention. Myers wanted to dance with Mrs. Harding, but she refused to be his partner in the dance, not caring to arouse the jealousy of Mrs. Myers.

Myers also wanted to sell his property and elope to Germany with Mrs. Harding, but she did not think he was in earnest and gave it but little notice. After the picnic the Myers and Harding families went home together with the exception of Mrs. Myers, who had gone on ahead.

As the party reached Myers' home, Mr. Harding invited Myers to his house. Myers accompanied the Hardings to their home. On their arrival Harding went out in the yard to lock up his chicken coop. Just as Harding went in the yard Myers said to Mrs. Harding: "Will you like me?" Mrs. Harding replied, "No," whereupon Myers shot her twice in the breast. He then put a bullet in his own brain, dying immediately. Mrs. Harding will likely recover.

Myers and Harding are millworkers and had homes close together.

ROBBED BY HER DAUGHTER.

An Old Woman's Pension Money and Child Disappear at the Same Time.

MUNCIE, Ind., June 22.—Mrs. Emma Von Meter is an old lady living with her daughter, Mrs. James Nidey, a widow by reason of her husband having been sent to the penitentiary, where he died. Mrs. Von Meter draws a pension, and had placed $15 of it away in a bureau drawer for safe-keeping.

Saturday the money and Mrs. Nidey disappeared at the same time, and Mrs. Von Meter has caused a warrant to be issued for her daughter's arrest, charging her with breaking open the drawer and taking the money. So far the officers have been unable to locate the missing woman, and it is believed that she left the city.

BURGLARS CAUGHT.

The Gang Who Ripped the Justice Residence at Dayton Captured in Xenia, O.

DAYTON, O., June 22.—The men who burglarized the residence of Mr. Horace Justice here Thursday while the family was attending the performance of Robinson's circus, have been caught at Xenia, O., and are now here in prison.

They took from the residence diamonds, gold watches, silverware and clothing valued at $500. About four hundred dollars' worth has been recovered. The men give the names of Lewis Brandenburg, Charles Doughty, James Farrel, George Jackson, Harry Wernard and Charles Hardin. The police claim to have a sure case on two of the men. They are all strangers here.

A Good Guesser.

COLUMBUS, Ind., June 22.—Joseph Heckman, a Brown county farmer, won the Indianapolis Sentinel's prize of $100 for guessing the nearest to the population of the United States, and the editor of The Sentinel came to this city Saturday, and in company with Congressman George W. Cooper and State's Attorney W. H. Evarrard, drove to Heckman's residence and presented him with the prize.

Storm Develops Into a Cyclone.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., June 22.—Friday night's storm developed into a cyclone and did considerable damage to property and growing crops. Little damage was done in the city itself, only a few barns and outbuildings on the southern edge of the town being demolished. Fifteen miles from the city the cyclone destroyed the homes of John Bowman, M. Bennett, Samuel Brown, K. Kersy and William Brown. All the inmates escaped without serious injury except Mrs. Elizabeth Bowman, mother of John Bowman, who was fatally injured.

Sudden Death.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Miss S. B. Packard, well known as one of the founders of the Spellman seminary, at Atlanta, Ga., died here yesterday. Miss Packard was on her way from Atlanta to her home in Massachusetts, and arrived here last Thursday. She was taken suddenly ill soon after leaving Atlanta, and when she reached Washington was unable to proceed further. Her remains were sent on to Massachusetts.

Disastrous Failure.

DUBUQUE, Ia., June 22.—The firm of Watters & Hodges, doing business under the name of the Dubuque Brass and Metal company, has failed. There are large eastern creditors of the firm. The total liabilities will aggregate $125,000. The gross assets are not over $75,000.

Neck Broken in a Fight.

HUDSON LAKE, Ind., June 22.—Robert Hall, a prominent young man of this city, and Byron Landon got into a dispute yesterday over Sarah Mell, a handsome young lady, with whom Hall was desperately in love. Hall's neck was broken in the fight. Landon fled to the woods, but was captured and jailed.

Caused by Low Water.

MASSILON, O., June 22.—The boiler at the Drake Coal company's mine, two miles west of the city, exploded at an early hour yesterday morning, setting fire to the buildings and burning Henry Vogt, the engineer, to ashes. Low water was the cause.

Murdered His Mother-in-Law.

MANISTEE, Mich., June 22.—Jack Kehoe, saloon keeper of this city, murdered his mother-in-law, Mrs. Ann McCormick, aged 55, yesterday morning, by poisoning her to death with a beer bottle. He attempted to kill his wife, but failed. She received serious internal injuries, besides a fracture of the skull and nose, but will recover. The family quarreled over property matters. Kehoe gave himself up.
